INDEX TO VOLUME XVII

Academic prediction at the University of Wisconsin, 65-74
Accelerated program and the registrar, the, 601-602
Accelerated program, the effects of the, 595-600
Accrediting, a master schedule for, 99-101
Adult education programs and facilities for the armed forces, 444-454
After this, what? 575-581
Altus, William D., Prediction in College English, 58-64
American Association of Collegiate Registrars, to the members of, 96-97
Anderson, Hurst Robins, The Registrar and the Faculty Adviser, 339-347
Anderson, John A., The Transfer Student—A Junior College Viewpoint, 618-629
Annual Report on Enrollments and Degrees, making use of the, 244
Armsby, Henry H., The ESMDT Program—Are the Colleges Meeting the Requirements of this Program? 582-594

Being a registrar now, 427-434
Blocker, Betty, Grade Reports to Deans and Students, 114
Book Reviews, 115-125, 248-251, 397-401
Brewer, W. Lyle, Factors Affecting Student Achievement and Change in a Physical Science Survey Course, 334-338
Brown, Francis J., Adult Education Programs and Facilities for the Armed Forces, 444-454
Business Sessions, 636-650

Carlson, Kären Louise, Meeting of the Wisconsin Association of Registrars, 274
Carson, R. M., College Student Records in Relation to Transfer, 526-530
Carter, Asa, Meeting of the Illinois Association of Collegiate Registrars, 264-265
Challenge, a, 236-238
Church schools in education, the part of, 155-160
College English, prediction in, 58-64
College grades, a study of, 28-34
Colleges and the war effort, the: Allegheny College, 371; American Association of Junior Colleges, 375; American Council on Education, 374; Association of American Colleges, 380-381; Catholic University of America, the, 376; Cornell University, 373; Credit for Students Entering Service During a Term or Semester, 382-388; Harvard University, 377; Indiana University, 370-371; Iowa State College, 373; Kentucky Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, the, 371-372; Louisiana State University, 376-377; National Conference of College and University Presidents on Higher Education and the War, the, 367-369; New York State Education Department, 375-376; North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, 377-378; Pennsylvania State College, the, 369; Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, 379-380; Transylvania College, 373; U. S. Office of Educational Wartime Commission, the, 373-374; University of Kentucky, the, 369-370; University of Michigan, 374-375; University of Wisconsin, the, 377; War Time Acceleration of Higher Education, 388-390; Wayne University, 377
Comprehensive examinations, grade distribution on, 177-180
Constitution of the Association, 663-666
Convention, thirtieth national: Budget Committee, report, 637-638; business sessions, 636-650; constitution of the Association, 663-666; Convention Exhibitors, Committee on, report, 643-644; delegates and guests in attendance, 667-675; Editor's report, 644-645; Executive Committee, report, 636-637; membership of the Association, 678; Nominating Committee, report, 636; Notes, 651-652; Office Forms and Equipment, Committee on, report, 642-643; officers and committees of the Association, 661-662; program, 407-415; Regional Associations, Committee on, report, 641-642; registration by states, 676; registration of convention meetings, 677; Resolutions, Committee on, report, 648-650; Second Vice President's report, 646; Special Projects, Committee on, report, 638-641; Treasurer's report, 646-648

Cox, H. M., A Program of Instructional Research and Student Guidance, 295-304
Credentials of two Canadian provinces—British Columbia and Alberta, evaluation of, 5-15

Daly, Rex F., Meeting of the Utah Association of Collegiate Registrars, 273-274
Daniels, J. M., The Effects of the Accelerated Program, 595-600
Delegates and guests—Thirtieth National Convention; statistical reports, 667-668
Deming, Ruth, Meeting of the Association of Indiana Collegiate Registrars, 265
Democratic philosophy, a degree in, 562-564
Donohue, Francis J., Academic Success and Persistence of February Entrants, 325-333
Dunlap, Jack W., Evaluation of Data in a Personnel Program, 493-503
Dyrness, Enock C., After This. What? 575-581; Reviewer of: Financial Aids for College Students, 248-249

ESMDT Program—are the colleges meeting the requirements of this program, the, 582-594
Editorial Comment, 96-101, 235-238, 357-362
Education and democracy: a duty we owe, 203-209
Education for tomorrow: a report from the American Youth Commission, 504-515
Educational Events, Calendar of, 277, 418
Educational values, 98-99
Eells, Walter Crosby, Developments in Higher Education—Wise and Otherwise, 455-492
Elder, Harry E., How Shall We Maintain an Adequate Supply of Teachers? 556-561
Eldred, Lewis, Let's Listen to the Students, 312-318
Elizabeth, Sister Ann, Meeting of the Kansas Association of Collegiate Registrars, 265-266
Employment Service, 149, 278, 419, 681-682
Enrollment figures, a flexible method of compiling, 109-111
Enrollment in engineering and other technical fields, trends in, 602-605
Evening college students, achievement of, 319-324

Faculty advisers, various plans for the administrative organization of, 89-92
February entrants, academic success and persistence of, 325-333
Feder, Daniel D., Illinois Educators Cooperate to Create the State-wide High School Testing Program, 283-290
Freshmen, age and intelligence of university, 233-234
Froehlich, Gustav J., Academic Prediction at the University of Wisconsin, 65-74

Gaskill, William J., A Success Story, 93-95
Gillis, Ezra L., Being a Registrar Now, 427-434
Grade reports to deans and students, 112-114
Graduation requirements in colleges of liberal arts and sciences, 187-197
Grant, Edward J., Policies and Practices Followed in Issuing Transcripts to Students and Others Requesting Them, 533
Guidance, the college's responsibility for, 235-236
Guiler, W. S. and Coleman, J. H., Reading at the College Level, 16-27

Hale, Wyatt W., Reviewer of: Choose and Use Your College (How to Get the Most Out of College), 115-116
Harrington, Dora, Meeting of the South Carolina Association of Collegiate Registrars, 272
Held, Omar C., Age and Intelligence of University Freshmen, 233-234
Hershey, Lewis B., The Future of the Selective Service System, 435-443
Higher education—wise and otherwise, developments in, 455-492
Hoff, Irvin, Evaluation of Credentials of Two Canadian Provinces—British Columbia and Alberta, 5-15
Hoffman, William S., Current Practice in Granting Honorary Degrees, 246-247; Making Use of the Annual Report on Enrollments and Degrees, 244
Honorary degrees, current practice in granting, 246-247
How large is a college? 244-246
Humphreys, J. Anthony, Reviewer of: Present Status of Junior College Terminal Education, and Why Junior College Terminal Education? 398-399

Immigration and Naturalization service, our, 516-525
In the Journals, 126-131, 252-256, 402-406
In the Office, 109-114, 244-247
Instructional research and student guidance, a program of, 295-304
Issuing transcripts to students and others requesting them, policies and practices followed in, 533

Kelly, John G., A Degree in Democratic Philosophy, 562-564

Larson, Arthur H., To the Members of the American Association of Collegiate Registrars, 96-97
Latin America, education in, 291-294
Lesher, C. Zaner, Illegibility of Photostatic Records, 531-532

McCracken, S. J., Grade Reports to Deans and Students, 112-114
McCreary, William H., The Registration of Nonresident Students in State Universities, 161-168
McQuitty, John V., Grade Distribution on Comprehensive Examinations, 177-180
MacKinnon, J. C., Trends in Enrollment in Engineering and Other Technical Fields, 602-605
Maher, Thomas F., The Legal Aspects of Private College Administration, 35-44
Mahn, Robert E., A Flexible Method of Compiling Enrollment Figures, 109-111
Mathews, E. J., Education in Latin America, 291-294
Mayer, W. L., and Nudd, W. E., Postwar Problems, 606-612
Merriman, Curtis, If High Schools Should Allow Credit Toward Graduation for "Work Experience," Should Colleges and Universities Recognize This for Admission? 545-546
Metz, G. E., A Uniform Method of Recording Test Results, 534
Mitchell, John Pearce, Transfer of Junior College Credits as Seen from the Viewpoint of the University, 613-617
Morrison, Hazel, Meeting of the North Carolina Association of Collegiate Registrars, 268-269
Murray, C. L., Reviewer of: Diagnostic and Remedial Techniques for Effective Study, 249-250; and Reading in General Education, 121-122

Nelson, Leona O'Brien, The Student Personnel Point of View as Applied to the Field of Admissions, 198-202
Nessell, Fred E., How Can the Registrar Help the Government in Its War Effort? 539
Nonresident students in state universities, the registration of, 161-168

Officers and committees of the Association, 1942-43, 661-662
Olesen, Peter, The Selective Training and Service Law and Its Effect upon College Enrollment, 147-154

Parrott, A. H., Meeting of the North Central Association of College Registrars, 269-270

Parten, Ailese, Meeting of the Texas Association of Collegiate Registrars, 272-273
Patterson, Grady S., A Table for Determining Quality Point Ratios, 111-112
Permanent record forms used by eighty-five Pacific coast colleges, and analysis of the, 355-356
Perry, Raymond C., Trends in Accreditation of Post-Secondary Institutions, 210-225
Personnel program, evaluation of data in a, 493-503
Pettengill, T. E., Should the High School Be Expected to Offer All of the Courses Considered Necessary by the Colleges and Universities for Satisfactory Preparation? 540-542
Photostatic records, illegibility of, 531-532
Physical science survey course, factors affecting student achievement and change in a, 334-338
Post-secondary institutions, trends in accreditation of, 210-225
Postwar problems, 606-612
Pre-freshman review courses—after high school graduation and before admission to college, should the college offer, 547-555
Preinkert, Alma H., Basic Principles Involved in Registration, 305-311
Private college administration, the legal aspects of, 35-44
Program of the thirtieth national convention, 407-415
Programs of students under the old and new plans at the University of Chicago, a comparison of the, 169-176

Quality point ratios, a table for determining, 111-112
Quantin, Hazel C., Meeting of the Middle States Association of Collegiate Registrars, 267
Question Box, the 102-108, 239-243, 363-366, 630-635

Reading ability in college, the improvement of, 181-186
Reading at the college level, 16-27
Reading reactions of freshmen to various types of subject matter, 226-232
Recording test results, a uniform method of, 534
Reeves, Floyd W., Education for Tomorrow: A Report from the American Youth Commission, 504-515
Regional Associations, directory of, 140-142, 275-276, 416-417, 679-680
Regional and state meetings: Illinois Association of Collegiate Registrars, nineteenth meeting, 264-265; Indiana Collegiate Registrars, Association of, annual meeting, 265; Kansas Association of Collegiate Registrars, nineteenth annual meeting, 265-266; Kentucky Registrars, The Association of, annual meeting, 266; Middle States Association of Collegiate Registrars, eleventh annual meeting, 267; Missouri Association of Collegiate Registrars, annual meeting, 267-268; Nebraska Branch of the American Association of Collegiate Registrars, annual meeting, 268; North Carolina Association of Collegiate Registrars, eighteenth annual meeting, 268-269; North Central Association of College Registrars, first annual meeting, 269-270; Ohio College Registrars, the Association of, 270-271; Pacific Coast Association of Collegiate Registrars, 271-272; South Carolina Association of Collegiate Registrars, 272; Texas Association of Collegiate Registrars, twenty-first annual meeting, 272-273; Utah Association of Collegiate Registrars, annual meeting, 273-274; Wisconsin Association of Registrars, annual meeting, 274
Registrar and faculty adviser, the, 339-347
Registrar and his war-time responsibility, the, 358-360
Registration, basic principles involved in, 305-311
Registration in a small college, 77-82
Renneker, George J., Reviewer of: The Background for College Teaching, 119-121; Liberal Education in a Democracy: A Charter for the American College, 399-401

Rennie, Wesley F., Youth Morale Today and Tomorrow, 83-88
Reported to Us, 132-139, 257-274, 391-396, 653-660
Robinson, J. R., Reviewer of: An Experiment in Responsible Learning, 116-117
Rosenlof, G. W., Reviewer of: The Ninth Yearbook of School Law, 250-251; What Practical or Vocational Courses Can Be Offered in the College of Liberal Arts That Will Be of Value to the Man Called into Military Service? 534-538

Sala, J. Robert, Meeting of the Missouri Association of Collegiate Registrars, 267-268; Registration in a Small College, 77-82
Salisbury, E. E., Our Immigration and Naturalization Service, 516-525
Saupe, Mildred Winn, Size of High School as a Factor in the College Success of Average and Superior Graduates, 45-57
Schmalzried, Newell T., Should the College Offer Pre-Freshman Review Courses—after High School Graduation and before Admission to College? 547-555
Selective service, 360-362
Selective Service System, the future of the, 435-443
Selective training and service law and its effect upon college enrollment, the, 147-154
Sheffield, Edward F., Achievement of Evening College Students, 319-324
Sherwood, Henry Noble, The Part of Church Schools in Education, 155-160
Should the high school be expected to offer all of the courses considered necessary by the colleges and universities for satisfactory preparation? 540-542
Singewald, George L., An Analysis of the Permanent Record Forms Used by Eighty-five Pacific Coast Colleges, 355-356
Size of high school as a factor in the college success of average and superior graduates, 45-57
Slusher, Clarice, The Accelerated Program and the Registrar, 601-602
Smyser, William Craig, Education and Democracy: A Duty We Owe, 203-209; Should Colleges and Universities Offer Sub-Freshman Work? 543-544; Reviewer of: The American Idea, 397-398
Southwick, Arthur P., The College and the War, 565-574
Speed-up, the, 357-358
Spindt, H. A., Various Plans for the Administrative Organization of Faculty Advisers, 89-92
Stanley, Edith, Reviewer of: Time on Their Hands: A Report on Leisure, Recreation and Young People, 117-118
Stone, Lewis Gordon, Reading Reactions of Freshman to Various Types of Subject Matter, 226-232
Student bankruptcy, 97-98
Student counseling services offered by various offices of the University of Michigan, the, 348-354
Student personnel point of view as applied to the field of admissions, the, 198-202
Students, let's listen to the, 312-318
Stumpf, W. A., A Comparison of the Programs of Students under the Old and New Plans at the University of Chicago, 169-176
Sub-freshman work, should colleges and universities offer, 543-544
Success story, a, 93-95

Teachers, how shall we maintain an adequate supply of, 556-561
Testing program, Illinois educators cooperate to create the state-wide high school, 283-290
Tiffany, Kathrine B., Graduation Requirements in Colleges of Liberal Arts and Sciences, 187-197
Transfer, college student records in relation to, 526-530
Transfer of junior college credits as seen from the viewpoint of the university, 613-617
Transfer student—a junior college viewpoint, the, 618-629

Underwood, Lawrence C., Meeting of the Association of Ohio College Registrars, 270-271

War effort, how can the registrar help the government in its, 539
War, the college and the, 565-574
West, Guy A., Meeting of the Pacific Coast Association of Collegiate Registrars, 271-272
What practical or vocational courses can be offered in the College of Liberal Arts that will be of value to the man called into military service? 534-538
Wiley, L. E. and Sheridan, Harold J., A Study of College Grades, 28-34
Wilking, S. Vincent, The Improvement of Reading Ability in College, 181-186
Williams, Robert L., The Student Counseling Services Offered by Various Offices of the University of Michigan, 348-354
Wilson, Jessie, Meeting of the Association of Kentucky Registrars, 266
Work Experience, should colleges and universities recognize this for admission, if high schools should allow credit toward graduation for, 545-546

Youth morale today and tomorrow, 83-88